

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE OF BOMBAYCRIMINAL APPELLATE JURISDICTION

CRIMINAL APPEAL NO.431 OF 2003

Shri Salim Alauddin Shaikh. ..Appellant.

V/s.

The State of Maharashtra ..Respondent.

Mr.K.V.Saste, APP for Respondent.

CORAM: A.M.KHANWILKAR, JDATE : AUGUST 16, 2006.*P.C. :

1. None appears for the appellant. Matter has been notified with office remark that objections have not been removed. As per the office noting, the appeal has been filed beyond limitation. The delay is reported to be of one day only. The appeal cannot be admitted, unless delay in filing the delay is condoned in the first place. As the appeal is admitted, the court can show indulgence to the appellant of condoning delay, if formal application was to be filed in that behalf, more so, because delay is only of one day. However, inspite of office objections reported long back, no steps have been taken by the appellant to remove the same. Today when the matter is notified and called out, none appears. Hence dismissed for non-prosecution.
